The Grand Finale at Morris Isaacson Centre for Music.

The stage is set. The voices are ready. And Soweto is about to witness something truly special.

Ten (10) outstanding choirs have officially made it through the auditions and will now compete for a life changing recording deal worth R60K on 1 March 2026 at the iconic Morris Isaacson High School. A venue deeply rooted in the history and resilience of Soweto.

This is more than just a competition. It is a celebration of community and the powerful sound of young talent rising from the heart of Soweto. After weeks of intense auditions filled with passion and raw emotion, the final 10 choirs stood out for their vocal strength, unity, originality, and stage presence.

The school remains a historic landmark in Soweto's story, a symbol of courage, youth activism, and transformation.

On 1 March 2026, its grounds will once again echo with the voices of young people shaping the future through music.

The winning choir will walk away with a professional recording deal valued at R60,000,00 offering them the opportunity to record and professionally produce their music, a stepping stone into the music industry and a platform to share their sound beyond Soweto.

Community members, families, music lovers, and supporters are invited to come and witness the harmonies and the unforgettable performances as 10 choirs compete for glory.

Venue: Morris Isaacson High School, Soweto

Date: 1 March 2026

Prize: Recording Deal Worth R60,000
